Dear Mr. Leibman:

Thank you very much for your letter of July 31 commenting on my talk at the National Strategy Seminar.

I appreciate your kind comments and am delighted to hear that you will be continuing to pursue an active course in furthering the objectives represented by the Seminar.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Mr. Dulles:

It was a great pleasure for me to meet you last Friday at the National Strategy Seminar banquet. Your speech ended the two-week program on exactly the note which was required.

I feel that the Seminar was a tremendously important development, and I shall continue to do all that I can to further the objectives which it represented. In this connection, I shall work closely with Frank Barnett and the many other outstanding Americans who recognize the importance of this work.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Morris I. Leibman
